REMARKS

50X1-HUM

1. A representative of the Soviet Government is assigned as an advisor to each Rumanian Ministry. He usually works in the office of the Assistant Minister and controls and censors all ministerial orders issued to lower level authorities, as well as all reports and records submitted by these authorities to the ministries.

2. The names of these Soviet advisors are withheld from the public, but are known to the officials of the ministries

3. MOSCOW's directives are transmitted to the Rumanian authorities either via the various Soviet ministries on the occasion of the regular official trips of the Rumanian ministers to MOSCOW or probably oftener by KAFTARADSE, Soviet ambassador to BUCHAREST.

4. Soviet-ordered measures are first discussed in the Central Committee of the Rumanian Workers' Party, and are then transmitted in the form of resolutions to the cabinet, the parliament and the President of the People's Republic, who issue them in the form of decrees, presidential resolutions, ministerial orders, etc.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
